SIOUXO ANDERSON
GOVERNOR

PIERRE

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the complexities of everyday living in our modern civilization require the highest standards of intelligent and responsible citizenship; and

WHEREAS, the maintenance of free schools for all people is the only feasible way to prepare for life in today's world; and

WHEREAS, the proficiency with which South Dakotans educate their children will determine the future of our state; and

WHEREAS, plans are being made for the thirty-second annual observance of a special education week by the South Dakota Department of Public Instruction, the South Dakota Education Association, the South Dakota Congress Parents and Teachers, and the South Dakota Department of the American Legion;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Sigurd Anderson, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do proclaim the week of November 9-15, 1952, as

and do urge that all citizens visit their schools during this week, to learn more about school programs and school problems and to assist in developing and improving our common schools.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 20th day of October, 1952.
